

Certificate in Adult Literacy and Adult Numeracy

INTRODUCTION

You can choose to study this course at either Boston College, Skirbeck Road, Boston or Red Lion Quarter, Spalding.

The City and Guilds 3792 course covers the standards for adult literacy and /or adult numeracy core curriculum. Certificates in Adult Literacy give people the essentials of literacy, so they have the resources to function effectively in their life and work. They cover three main areas:

- Listening and speaking
- Reading
- Writing

Certificates in Adult Numeracy cover key areas in numeracy enabling learners to use numbers every day in a variety of important ways. They include:

- Numbers and fractions
- Using data
- Multiplication and subtraction
- Measurements and shapes
- Time

Literacy and Numeracy are available at five levels - entry 1, 2, and 3, and levels 1 and 2.

HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE

The course is flexible to fit in with the learner's commitments. There is a choice of days / hours per week on offer, either in the College or local community venues. The learner can choose which sessions they want to attend from a minimum of 2 hours per week

This course may last from 3 weeks to 30 weeks in the day or evening.

ENTRY QUALIFICATIONS

There are no formal entry qualifications.

WHERE COULD IT LEAD

Certificates in Adult Literacy and Adult Numeracy can help learners gain access to success and progression, in work and in their day-to-day lives.

Level 1 is equivalent to vocational GCSE grades D –G.
Level 2 is equivalent to vocational GCSE grades A* -C.

FEES

Tuition for this course is free

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Where courses last for more than one year, only the first year's fees are shown

HOW TO APPLY

You can apply for this course by applying online, by filling out an application form from the College prospectus or by contacting the Information Officer on 01205 313218 for further information.

The Information on this Course Information Sheet is correct at time of print, but can be subject to change at anytime.

02/06/2011 14:56:36 5PBADLIT-5PBADNUM